The Centre for Music is open

As lockdown eases, the Centre for Music on Frenchay Campus is more widely open for members.

Rooms can be booked just seven days in advance (or sooner if you contact them directly). The two large rehearsal rooms can accommodate six people and smaller rooms one or two people at a time. Late opening on Mondays and Thursdays.

We ask you to remain cautious and continue to have regular lateral flow tests so we all stay safe. We can't wait to welcome you back!

Final years

Final years - don't log off just yet!

There are some things you'll need to do now you've finished your studies at UWE Bristol.

- Save anything you may need from our IT systems - you'll lose access to Office 365 (including OneDrive) 30 days after your course finishes and university IT systems 42 days (6 weeks) after your course finishes (you can find the exact date in myUWE under Documents) so save anything you may need from myUWE, Blackboard and your H Drive. Your UWE Bristol email account will remain active for one year, but you'll need to log in directly through Office 365.

- Update your contact details in myUWE - as we'll post your award certificate to the home address listed. Please ensure your personal email address is correct as important emails from the University may go to this address once you've left.
- Prepare to pay Council Tax - check your Council Tax certificate in myUWE to see when you are due to start paying Council Tax.
