Description

WDKA is located in the heart of Rotterdam - the second largest city in the Netherlands, and the largest port in Europe. The academy buildings house many workshops and studios where students can work on a wide range of challenging projects. Study programmes focus on Practice-driven education, Student-driven education and Knowledge-driven education. Students are also provided with Career Coaching.

Surrounding Area

The historic city of Rotterdam, which dates back to the 13th Century, is now a dynamic city bustling with activity. Attractions, festivals, concerts, theatre performances and events take place the whole year round in the modern city centre. It has a wide range of museums, cafés, and restaurants. Nearly everyone in Rotterdam understands and speaks English.
